Introduction

Google Cloud Community Days (GCCD) is a series of events held around the world that brings together Google Cloud enthusiasts, experts, and practitioners from across India to share knowledge and discuss the latest trends and best practices in Google Cloud technology, including the latest advancements in AI.

We strive to create a safe and inclusive environment for all attendees, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age, or religion.

What We Do Not Tolerate

We do not tolerate any form of harassment, discrimination, or offensive behavior at our events.

This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Verbal abuse
- Physical assault
- Sexual harassment
- Discrimination
- Stalking
- Threats
- Intimidation
- Offensive language
- Unwanted physical contact

Respectful Behavior

We encourage all attendees to be respectful of each other. This means being mindful of your words and actions, and avoiding any behavior that could make others feel uncomfortable or unsafe.

Speaking Up

If you witness or experience any form of harassment or discrimination, please report it to a Google employee or event staff member immediately. We will take all reports seriously and investigate them promptly.

Reporting Harassment

You can report harassment or discrimination in a number of ways:

- In person: Find a event organizer member or team or any Google employee who attending the event and tell them what happened.
- Online: Submit a report through the community <https://gdg.community.dev/gdg-cloud-gandhinagar/> .
