Community Rules

General Guidelines

- Be respectful and welcoming to beginners and all community members

- Use appropriate language at all times

- Follow the project's code of conduct

- Help others when possible

GitHub Contribution Rules

1. Pull requests can be submitted to any opted-in repository on GitHub or GitLab

2. PRs must contain commits you made yourself

3. Spam PRs will not be counted toward Hacktoberfest participation

4. Behavior not aligned with the project's code of conduct will result in ineligibility

5. Four approved PRs between October 1-31 are required for rewards

6. PRs must be made in any time zone during the eligible period

Quality Over Quantity

While the goal is to make 4 pull requests, focus on making meaningful contributions:

- Fix bugs

- Add documentation

- Improve existing code

- Create new features

- Write tests

Avoid spammy contributions such as:

- Minor typo fixes in comments

- Whitespace changes

- Unnecessary file renames
